

Configuration Summary

"This configuration is based on your input. Please assure you have the hardware and software needed for your development environment. Please be advised that any eligible additions made to this configuration after the order has been placed that are less than $5,000 list, will have to be processed as a 50% discount/purchase or 35% discount purchase depending on the CPU Model and will not be added to a leased machine/order. All applicable local/state taxes will be added to the purchase/lease price. Warranty for the system unit is one (1) year. Other hardware component's warranties range from three months to one year depending on the product. If you wish to purchase hardware maintenance, so the machine goes on maintenance after the warranty period, please contact IBM Global Services at 888-426-4343 or ask your Techline Specialist for assistance. Maintenance cannot be discounted or included in your lease. All machines are customer set up. No post sales support is part of the developer offering and must be sourced thru 888-426-4343, opt. 3 at commercial pricing. If you are purchasing you may be required to pay partial or full amount at the time of the order. If you are leasing, you may be required to pay a deposit at the time of the order. IBM will accept your order (via purchase order, email or other) subject only to the terms and conditions contained in the IBM Customer Agreement and any other IBM and/or IBM Credit Corp agreements and documents that may be appropriate to your order. All sales are final. If you should encounter any hardware or software problems, normal IBM warranty provisions will apply."

If you would like to have this equipment placed on order as the configuration shows, please reply by returning this configuration with your concurrence. Thank you for your continued interest in IBM products and services
